Sermon Video: Please include a DVD or link to a recent sermon preached in your congregation

Statement of Interest:

The role of facilitator is a key feature of this program. Thus it is important that persons who serve this function have the skill, training, emotional and spiritual stability to function effectively in a leadership role among their peers. Please provide a statement that describes your interest and related experience that will be useful in helping you to fulfill the role of facilitator.

References: Please include forms for two references – one from the chair of your church's leadership team and one from a clergy colleague.

References must be emailed directly from the referring individuals to the program, along with the reference form.

Your signature on this document indicates your commitment to serve as a peer group facilitator for three years.
